

Statement of Roles and Responsibilities - Mortgage Intermediary

The purpose of this statement is to set out the roles and responsibilities of OSB Group (trading as Kent Reliance) and its intermediary partners in relation to the FCA's Consumer Duty.

You are receiving this statement as you are an intermediary who is on boarded to our panel and is regarded as a Distributor of products manufactured by Kent Reliance.

Roles and Responsibilities

OSB Group's analysis has confirmed that it is a manufacturer of its mortgage/savings products, with the intermediary taking the role of the distributor.

As manufacturer, OSB Group's responsibilities include:

- Designing and approving products in line with the FCA's Consumer Duty Rules and Guidance;
- Identifying the target market for these products, including considering if any customers with vulnerable characteristics are in the target market and if so if there would be any disproportionate impact on such customers or any additional needs;
- Ensuring the product is designed to meet the needs, characteristics and objectives of the target market and provides fair value;
- Providing sufficient information to the intermediary so it can:
 - understand the characteristics of the product or service;
 - understand the identified target market;
 - consider the needs, characteristics and objectives of any customers with characteristics of vulnerability;
 - identify the intended distribution strategy;
 - ensure the product or service will be distributed in accordance with the target market;
- Performing regular product reviews to ensure the product continues to provide good customer outcomes;
- Developing a distribution strategy appropriate for the target market and regularly reviewing this to ensure it continues to deliver good customer outcomes;

The manufacturer is responsible for ensuring all:

- information relevant to the value assessment is passed to the distributor; and
- fair value obligations are met in respect of any product it distributes to a retail customer.

The intermediary's responsibilities include:

- Obtaining the information it needs to understand the mortgage/savings products, their target market and intended distribution strategy;
- Providing information on request to support manufacturer's product reviews;
- Developing the distribution arrangements for the mortgage/savings products and ensuring that they are consistent with the distribution strategy for the product and provide providing fair value to retail customers;
- Assessing whether the intermediary charges provide fair value;
- Regularly reviewing its distribution arrangements to ensure they continue to deliver good customer outcomes.

If either party identifies customer harm:

- caused by the manufacturer/distributor, they should inform the other party where relevant and take any reasonable action needed to mitigate the harm; and/or
- elsewhere in the distribution chain, they must notify all relevant parties and the FCA.

Management Information

To enable parties to comply with their roles and responsibilities as set out above, both will have an obligation to provide the other with agreed Management Information (MI) and relevant insight. This will need to be in such a format and/or frequency as agreed.

In due course, we will share with you a schedule, to support the data exchange required. The schedule will be based on the UK Finance standard template, which is expected to facilitate consistent sharing of MI across the industry.
